St. Patrick's Day treasure hunt March 15th:

Every year I hear that Liam the Leprechaun has moved his treasure to a new hiding place to keep it safe from little boys and girls. When he finds out that we are looking for his treasure he tries to trick us and send us on a treasure hunt of map reading, counting, shape finding, etc. I have to proudly say in 18 years he has never tricked us and ends up sharing his treasure with us. Wish us luck this year!
