

Lawrence Preschool Newsletter November 2018

New Theme: Family traditions:

Our new theme explores ways families like to spend time together while incorporating the understanding of money. This is what our new centers will look like during the holiday season:

Art - Mexican Restaurant

Blocks - Fitness Center

Dramatic Play - Starbucks

Literacy - Movie Theater

Science - Ice Skating

Table Toys - Post Office

Please join us on Wednesday, Nov. 7 from 7:45 to 8:15am to honor our Veterans at a ceremony being held in front of the school near the flag. After the ceremony we will come back to the classroom where parents can sign in and preschoolers can start their day.

Delivery of Butter Braids: Friday, November 9th

Big Reminder:

Fall Conferences are on Monday, November 12th. Please look for conference reminders attached to your child's sign out sheet.

PTA Meeting is Tuesday, November 13, 2018

Traveling Library:

Ms. Robyn will visit us and share her wonderful books, puppets and games on Thursday, Nov. 15th. Ask your child what their favorite book was that day. They may just have a new favorite!

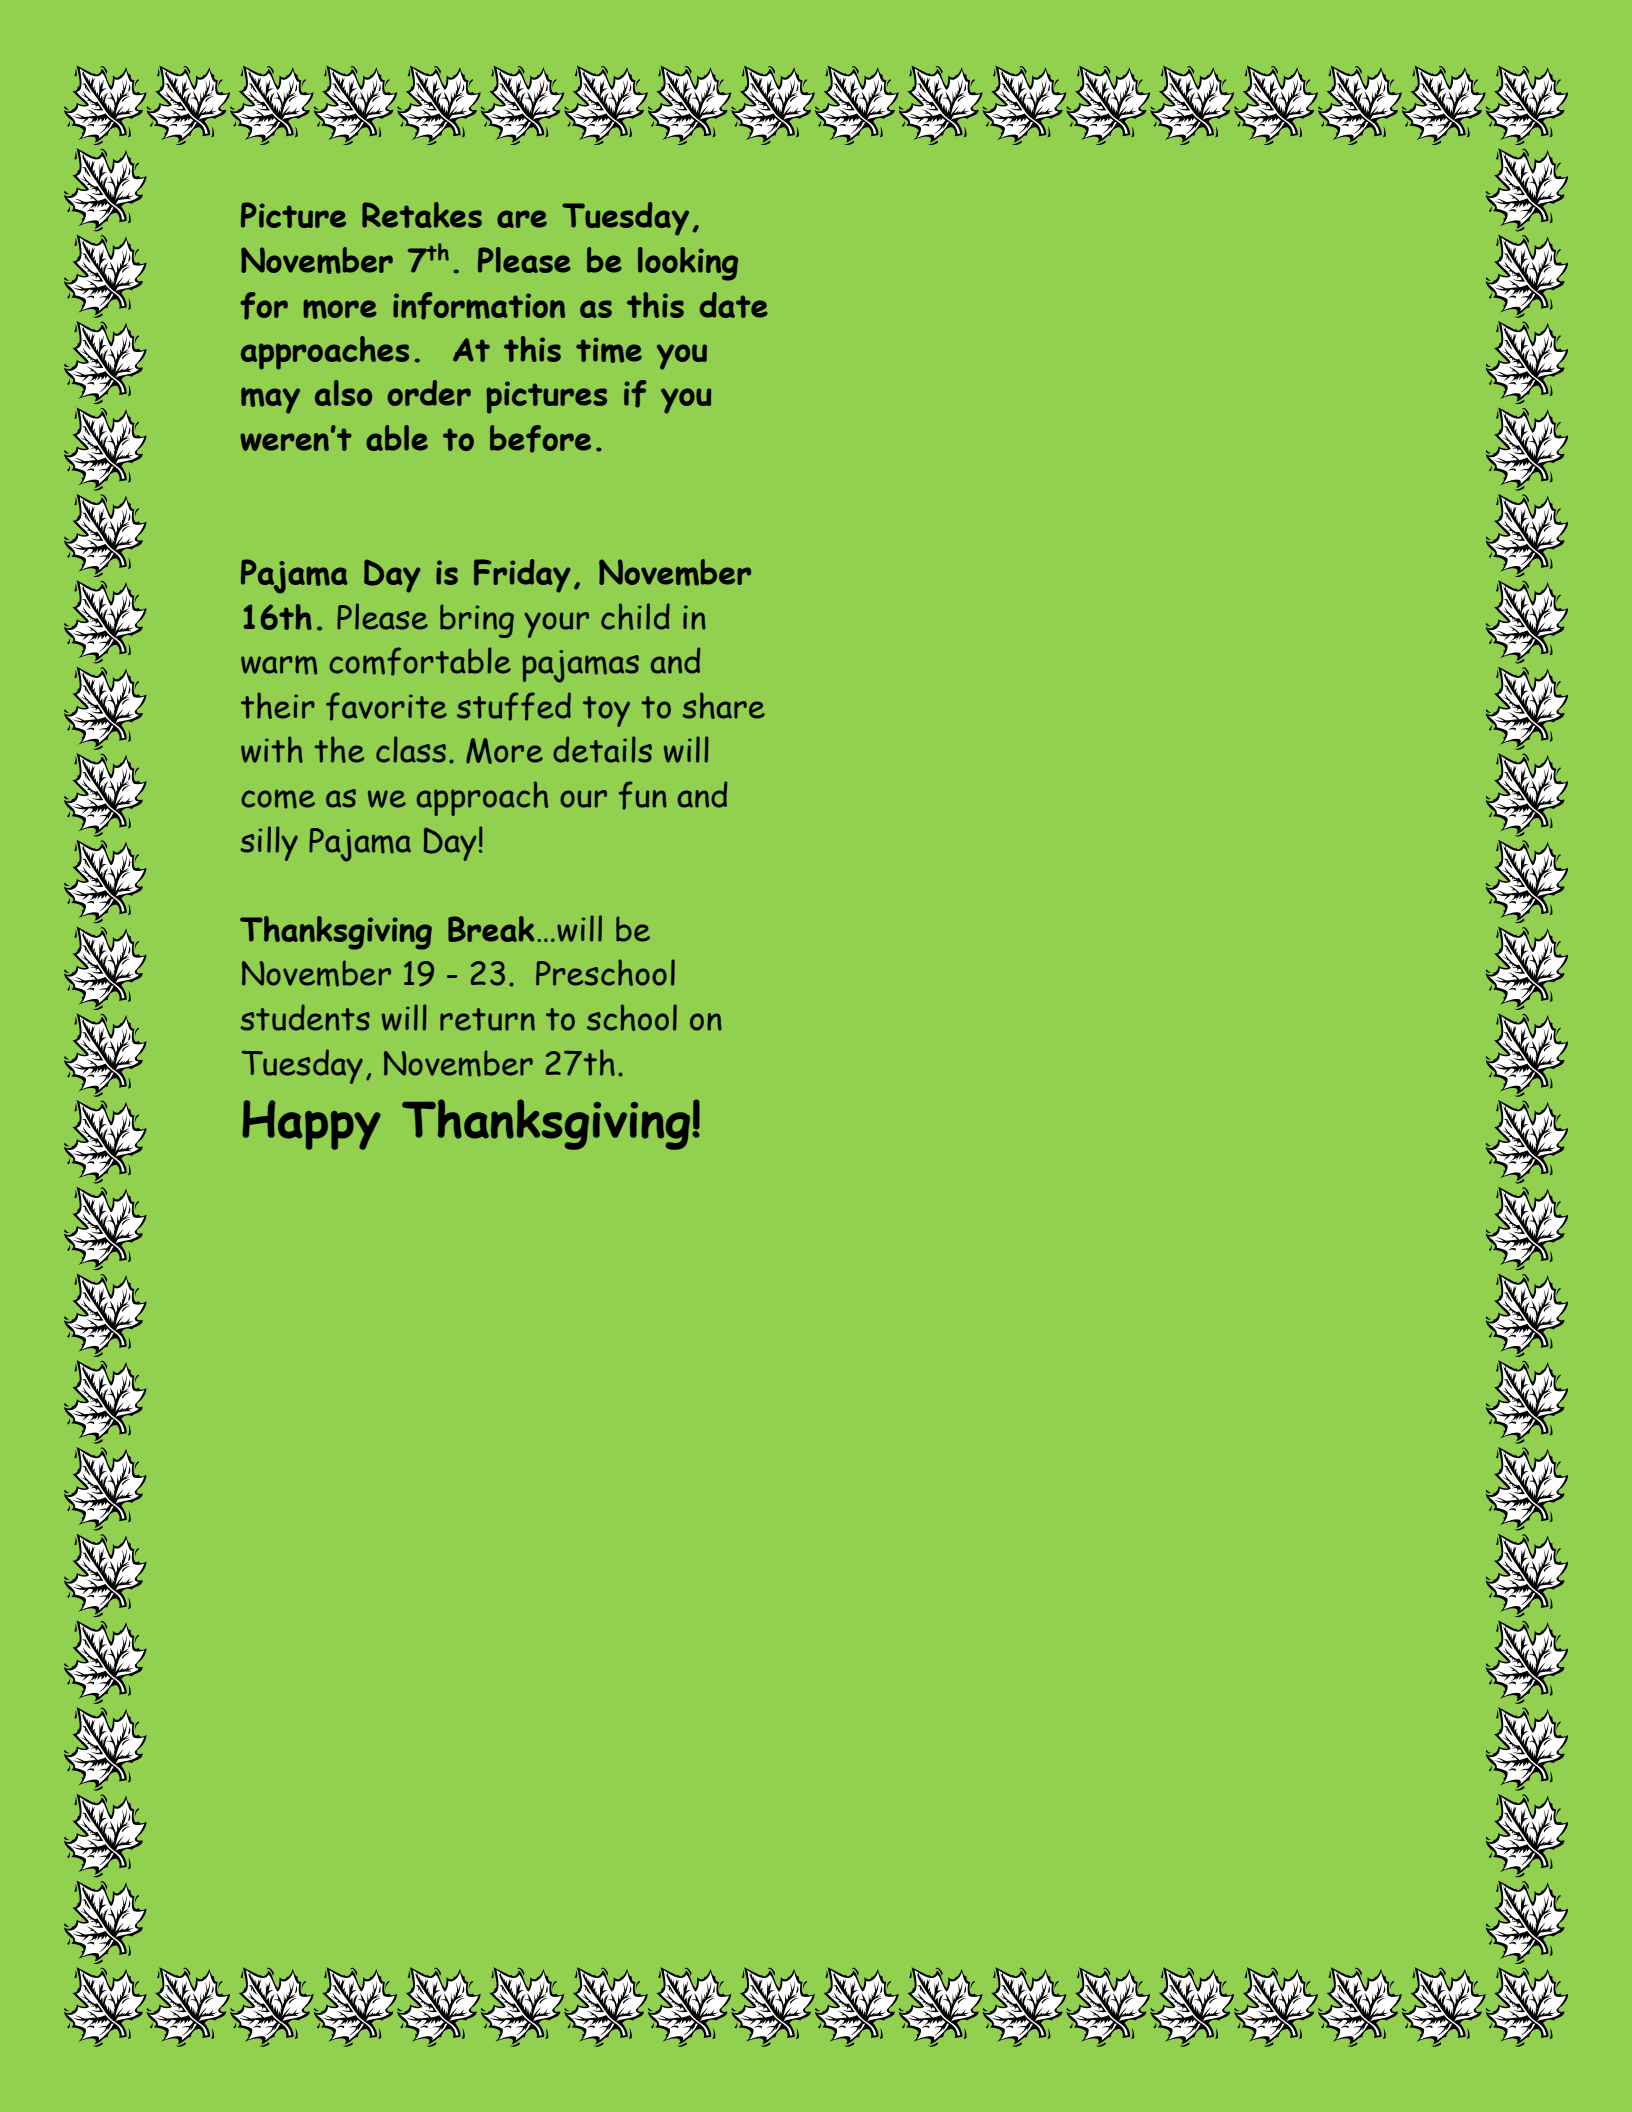

International Night:

Join us for International Night
Thursday, November 15

5:00-7:00 pm

A free family night of fun!

- Dinner
- Activities
- Crafts

Picture Retakes are Tuesday, November 7th. Please be looking for more information as this date approaches. At this time you may also order pictures if you weren't able to before.

Pajama Day is Friday, November 16th. Please bring your child in warm comfortable pajamas and their favorite stuffed toy to share with the class. More details will come as we approach our fun and silly Pajama Day!

Thanksgiving Break...will be November 19 - 23. Preschool students will return to school on Tuesday, November 27th.

Happy Thanksgiving!